

#4636: Haiti's Free Emergency SMS

VOLUNTEER CREOLE-SPEAKERS NEEDED FOR URGENT TRANSLATION NEEDS!

- Help people find their missing loved ones.
- Help aid groups determine where there is need.
- Help medical personnel find injured parties.

WHAT: The Haitian people need Creole-speaking volunteers to translate urgent text messages to #4636 – the Haiti Emergency SMS Line.

#4636 is working to match needs with providers in Haiti. Anyone, anywhere in Haiti, can text messages to #4636 with their location, report a problem or send information about the missing or those found. Our volunteers will translate the data and try to route it to the appropriate organizations and service providers.

WHERE: Once trained, anywhere with Internet – even from your own laptop.

HOW: Contact SEIU at volunteerhaiti@seiu.org. Send us your name, email and phone and tell us you want to translate text messages.

REQUIREMENTS:

1. You must be able to read and write in English and Creole.
2. You must be able to use a computer and follow simple instructions to fill out spreadsheets.

That's it. Let's help the Haitian people get through this catastrophe.
